

JUDITH PASTOR

GRAPHIC DESIGNER

I have a background in graphic design and consider myself a creative and detail-oriented professional. I am passionate about visual design and strive for excellence in every project I undertake.

My ability to find creative solutions, combined with a highly organized approach, allows me to manage multiple tasks efficiently while delivering high-quality results within established deadlines. I enjoy the challenge of transforming ideas into impactful visual experiences, adapting to the needs and objectives of each client.
